

Please refer to the following instructions for formatting your Excel file (example.xlsx):

First Column: This column should contain the questions.

Middle Columns: These columns should contain the multiple-choice options.

Second to Last Column: This column should contain descriptions of the questions.

Last Column: This column should contain the correct answers.